FOREWORD

The Highland Beacon of Education lights our way toward a learned world. Seven colors glow through a glassy prism, and combine to form a beacon's white light. This flashing symbol of progress penetrates the night, and reminds us that satisfaction symbolizes laxity.

Personality, like the light, is created in a fusion of many facets. Highland's guiding light envelops classes, sports, and activities wherein students mature. Highland High School lights the pathway to happiness and serenity.

May its guiding beacon forever shine!

CLASSES

Highland's classes move forward into ever-broadening areas of knowledge and experience. Students are offered courses in literature and language, industrial, commercial, and fine arts, social studies, and physical education. They can acquire that basic knowledge which has come to be the common denominator among well-educated men and women.

Our custodian, Mr. Brunskill.

Many a delicious meal these cooks have prepared. They are: Mrs. Golden, Mrs. Kraus, and Mrs. Stein.

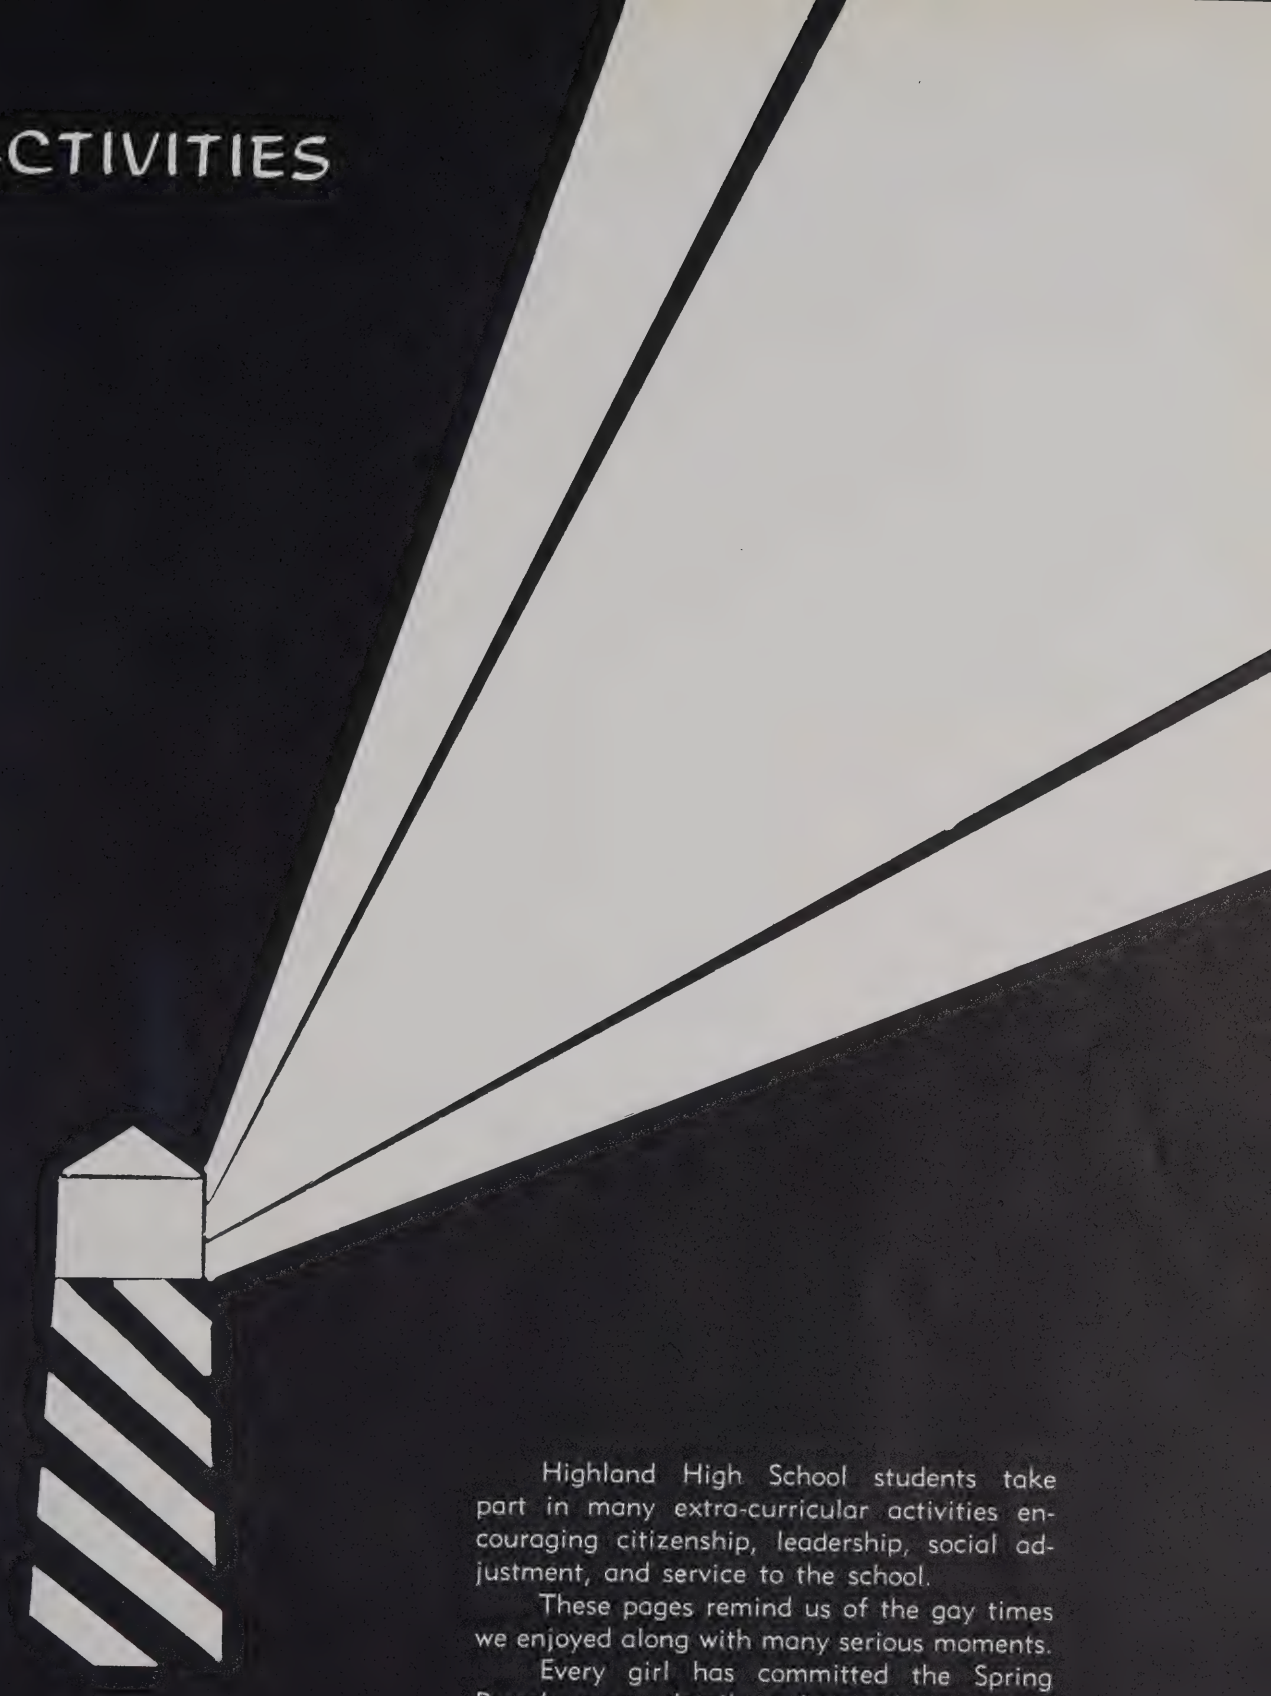

OUR SCHOOL SCENE

The pep meetings are the big event on the days of the games. This pep meeting we were honored with cheerleaders from an unknown community. They were very good though and their names were something like Mr. Gienke, Mr. Weber, and Mr. Crile.

ACTIVITIES

Highland High School students take part in many extra-curricular activities encouraging citizenship, leadership, social adjustment, and service to the school.

These pages remind us of the gay times we enjoyed along with many serious moments.

Every girl has committed the Spring Prom's every detail to heart, but pictures refresh our memories.

CHORUS

The Highland Chorus is one of the many musical organizations found at Highland High School. There are about seventy-two members in the Chorus this year, consisting of Junior and Senior girls, and boys from all four grades. For the Christmas Concert the Chorus sang a cantata entitled "Led by a Star." "My Fair Lady" was sung at the Spring Concert.

Row One: D. Gantos, S. Potts, L. Olden, S. Kellogg, C. Louk, N. Richey, D. Laisy, J. Ranftl, M. Hartman, J. Bramley, S. Schemmel, J. Swain, C. Rohm, G. Glover, M. Legan, A. Donkin. Row Two: D. STRIKE UP

B. Khoenle, Treasurer; G. Snyder, Secretary; E. Rickert, President; S. Scanlan, Vice-President.

Maybe MacNamara had something, but Highland really has a Band!

Its membership had steadily increased to 64.

The Marching Band plays at every football game. The Concert Band presents both a Christmas and Spring Concert

The Snowflake Formal is also sponsored by the Band, complete with a Snowflake Queen.

A LITTLE BIT OF OLD ROME

The great Roman Masters relax at the table while their slaves prepare the food.

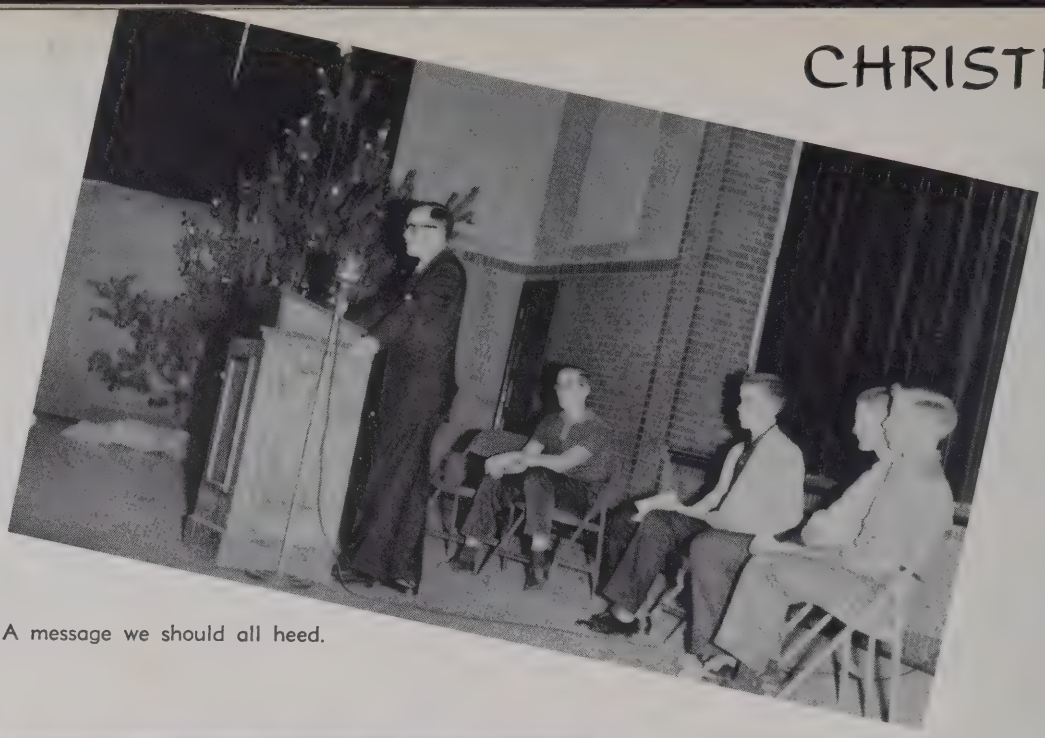

Between courses of the meal a skit is presented for the Masters.

In the spring of each year, the Latin Classes re-create a Roman Banquet. Everyone comes in togas and pallas and sits on the floor at low tables just as the Romans did so long ago. The Freshmen are slaves to the Sophomores. The meal consists of everything from eggs to apples. Between courses short skits are acted out.

This is the life!!! For everyone but the slaves, that is.

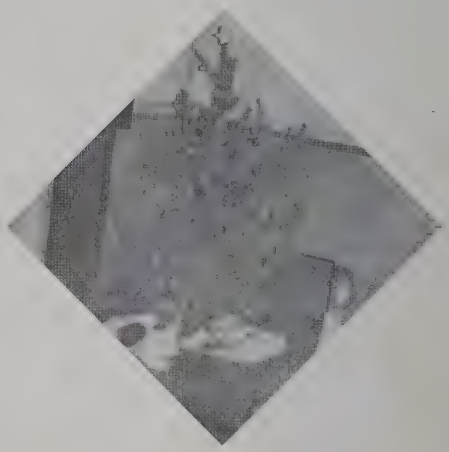

CHRISTMAS

A message we should all heed.

This is a party?????

Santa has come to town.

The old classroom looks good today.

TIME

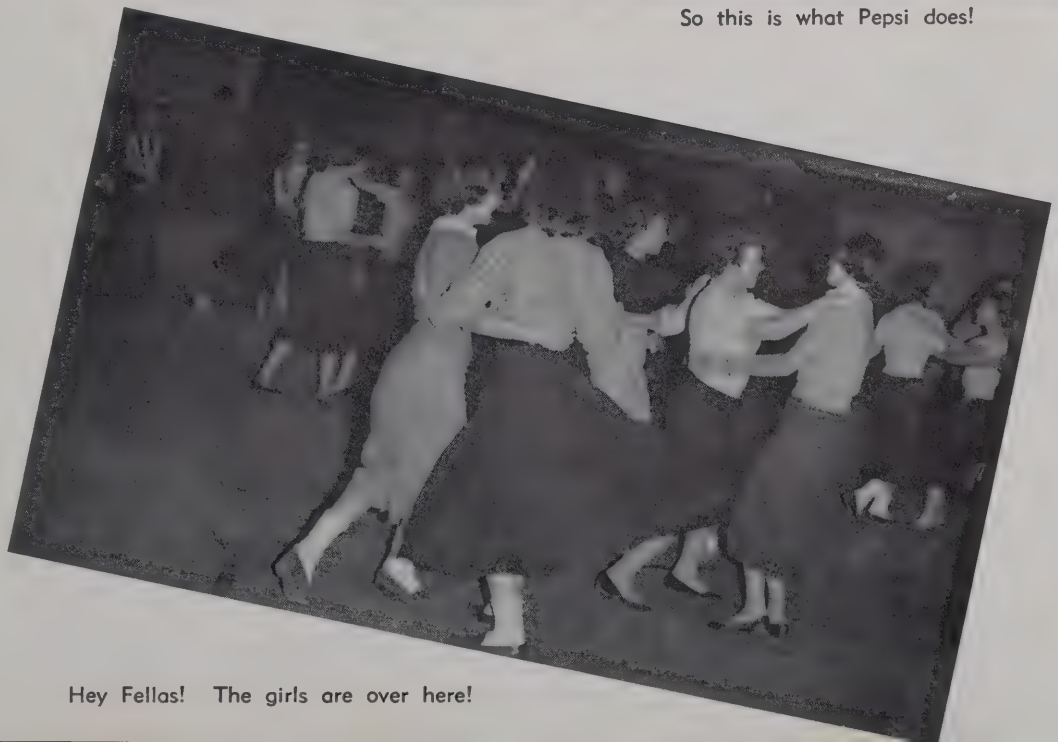

The Stiletones

Christmas at Highland was celebrated with a series of events. First we had an assembly sponsored by the Hi-Y. Rev. Bixler was our guest speaker. Santa also visited us during the assembly. He brought humorous gifts for the faculty of which the students heartily approved. Then the students returned to their own home rooms where they had parties. These were followed by dancing in the gym.

There was also a room decorating contest sponsored by the Student Council. The Seniors won first prize.

So this is what Pepsi does!

Hey Fellas! The girls are over here!

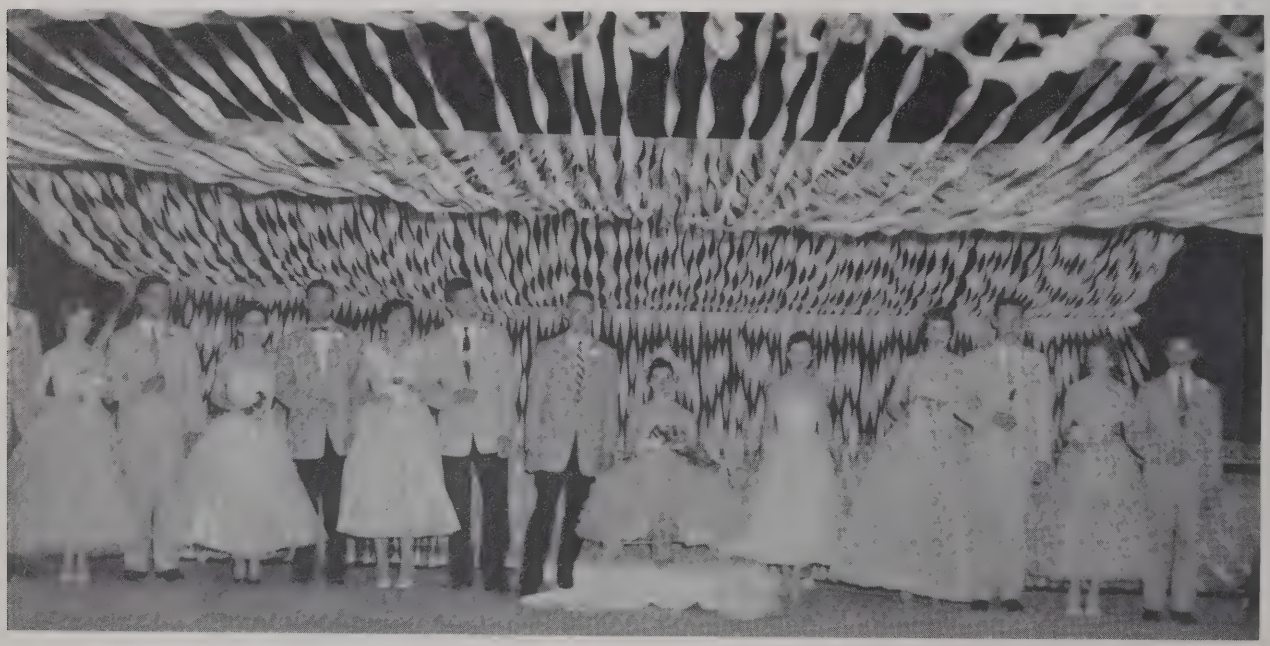

MAY DANCE 1957

Queen Geraldine, the fairest of Queen of all.

The May Dance was held the first week-end in May. The Student Council sponsors the dance. The Queen is elected by the entire student body and her attendants are from the other classes.

The Queen and her Royal Court, Bob Blazak, Jacqueline Thiel, Jim Spurrier, Marjie Legan, Gail Ruckel, June Swain, Steve Webster, Elwin Rickert, Queen Geraldine, Joan Mostoller, Mary Saunders, Burt Drogell, Ruth Daulbaugh, Bob Burton.

The royal court of the May Dance. Jacqueline Thiel, Janet Bartel, Marjie Legan, June Swain, Queen Geraldine Snyder, Joan Mostoller, Mary Saunders, and Ruth Daulbaugh.

Queen Geraldine and her escort, Elwin Rickert dance to the Queen's Dance.

In the Spring many new and lovely things come to sight. The May Dance was also new and lovely. A new Queen is crowned. The Queen herself, the court, and even the decorations were a vision of loveliness. The Queen wore a white gown and all her attendants were in beautiful pastel dresses. The decorations were of soft, spring colors.

The Queen's Dance. The Queen and her Attendants are honored with a special dance.

HOMECOMING DANCE 1957

Queen Sally.

Through the royal arch made by the Majorettes, Sally is escorted by the co-captains, Elwin Rickert and Gail Ruckel.

Queen Sally and her lovely attendants at the dance: Pat Eckleberry, Linda Daulbaugh, Sandra Kellogg, Gloria Pries, Pat Copperman, and Elaine Mostoller.

The Queen's reign begins at half-time at the football game Friday night. She is driven to the football field in a beautiful convertible and escorted to the center of the field by the Co-Captains. There the crowning ceremonies take place and then the Queen is escorted back to her seat to watch the rest of the game.

The next night she reigns over the dance. The crowning takes place at 10:00. There she is crowned by her escort and then honored with the Queen's Dance. A wonderful night is had by all and this night will remain vivid in their memories.

As a Knight would kiss the hand of his Queen, so Queen Sally is kissed by co-captain, Elwin Rickert.

Sally's escort, Gary Smith crowns her Homecoming Queen of 1957

All enjoyed the dance, a tribute to the Queen and the Highland Hornets.

SNOWFLAKE FORMAL

Queen Karol being escorted to her throne by Larry Brandel.

The Snowflake formal is sponsored by the Band and every year a Queen is elected by the Band. The dance is held during Christmas vacation. The decorations are that of a Christmas day. A Christmas Tree adds much to the festive air of the dance.

A new Queen is being crowned! Jeanette Briggs, last year's Queen, crowns Karol Kuruc the new Queen. The court is: Howard Warner, Faye Grindle, Larry Kramer, Dora Friedline, Jeanette Briggs, Karol Kuruc, Larry Brandel, Barbara Khoenle, Elwin Rickert, Terry Burton, and Tom Harker.

Her Royal Highness takes time out for a bit of refreshment.

While her attendants look on Queen Karol and her escort Larry Brandel dance the Queen's dance.

With a nod from the Queen all join in the dance.

PROM

Our guest speaker, Mr. Vermillion.

A glowing light beams in the faces of the Juniors and Seniors during the last weeks of April. This is Prom time. All Juniors and Seniors look forward to this, the biggest dance of the year. Along with the dance there is a banquet, a movie and usually bowling. This truly, is the most glowing day of the school year.

An after dinner smile for the cameraman.

A bit tired kids????

1957

A strike Shirley?????

Ping pong at 3:00 in the morning???

The c r a z y dance!!!

Nice shot, Nancy.

The night of the Prom began with a dinner and banquet at Iacomini's. Then the tables were cleared away and everyone danced until about 12:00. From there we went to Wadsworth, first to the show and then to the Kolony to bowl, dance or play ping pong. At 5:00 all the students went back to the school to a breakfast prepared by the Home and School Club.

JUNIOR PLAY 1957 "HILARITY HOUSE"

This is the story of a group of teenagers whose Uncle Jeff doesn't believe in the modern way of dressing and acting. They try their best to win him over so they can receive his inheritance.

They even go so far as to pose as his old sweetheart's children who were supposed to receive his inheritance.

In the end Uncle Jeff finds out that his old sweetheart didn't really love him. She just wanted his inheritance and he is glad he didn't give it to her.

HORNETS IN ACTION

Behind you, Tom.

On a cool, crisp, moonlit night the Highland Hornets hosted Green's Bulldogs at the annual Homecoming football game. The spectators were hardly seated when a pass, Edwards to Conners, connected and Highland led 6-0.

The Hornets were unable to contain the Bulldogs from there on, and Green earned a hard-fought victory 18-6.

Can anyone stop him??

With pep, vitality, and eagerness the Highland cheerleaders lead the spectators in cheering the team on to victory. There are two teams of cheerleaders, varsity and reserve.

The varsity cheerleaders receive awards at the Athetic Banquet for cheering at the football and basketball games and promoting the school spirit.

The cheerleaders are selected by a panel of judges made up of teachers and students. They are judged on the following qualifications; athletic ability, appearance, voice, personality, enthusiasm, vitality and scholarship.

MAJORETTES

Our six high-stepping majorettes led the Marching Band throughout football season. This year the girls twirled flag-batons and fire-batons. Their uniforms, which they made themselves, were green and white.

I, EARL WHIPPLE, will my ability to never complain to anyone to Linda Blake.

I, RENEE WHITE, will my height with feet to match to Diane Gantos.

CLASS PROPHECY

AROUND THE WORLD WITH FIFTY SENIORS

This is the year 1968. We're off on a world assignment for the Podunk County Gazette. Assignment — contact every Senior from the Highland High School graduating class of 1958. See what has happened to them over the years. Our editor tells us to go where we must and hang the expense.

Our assignmnt begins right here in Podunk Valley U.S.A. During services at the Podunk Valley Church we find our first Senior. LEOLA LUYSTER has made the choir famous with her bass solos. Many Seniors have settled in Podunk Valley for some reason or other. YVONNE HUFF owns a beauty shop, but we can hardly recognize her. She has dyed her hair black. One of her customers is likely to be ESTELLA HELLEIN. Estella owns a pet shop now and brings her little charges in quite often.

Our editor schedules our first out-ot-town stop in New York to see the famous BRENDA GODFREY who has been a smash hit on Broadway for several years. She owns a flea circus. Brenda tells us that another Highlander has been successful in New York. So we follow her directions to JANICE CROCKER'S muscle-building salon, where Mr. Universe is working out. He has set a new world's record by lifting 7, 529, 641 and ½ lbs. Incidentally. Mr. Universe is DANNY CURTIS.

Danny takes us to the Frantic Frivolous Frock Shoppe owned by BOB SCHWELGIN and managed by GARY THOMPSON. JUNE SWAIN and THERESA DIGHERO model the latest frantic frivolous styles for us.

On a day off we try to take a ferry to Staten Island, but the only ferry service is owned by KAROL KURUC who transports ex-Buckeye students exclusively. We never did get a ride.

The following day we board a J.F.H. Transcontinental Airliner to London. This airline is owned by multi-millionaire JAMES FRANCIS HUFF. We had excellent service from hostess JOAN RANFTL.

Overseas at last, we find SALLY SCANLAN and RITA STOLL engaged in an around-the-world Pogo stick race. When interviewed, they said only, "we're all shook up."

We had to stop and ask an English Bobbie (policeman to you) for directions. Who do you think it was? DAVE PETH! Good old Dave — with an English accent.

While crossing the English channel to France, we met SHIRLEY ANN KENDALL. Shirley was swimming the channel. Later we found out that she had come within yard of reaching France, but she just couldn't make it.

In Paris we saw laughing EARL WHIPPLE who daily climbs the Eiffel Tower for exercise.

In Holland we find DOLLY MOSTOLLER and RENEE WHITE who are busy with the production of elevated wooden shoes. Dolly is the "before elevation" model and Renee the "after".

While in Rome, Italy we visit one of the world's most famous Pizza Houses, owned and operated by none other than AMY DONKIN. The famous Pizza House has a branch in Akron known as Luigi's As we were finishing our pizza, BOB NIEPERT came in. He had a very puzzled expression on his face. (didn't he always?) For years he has been trying to figure out how to straighten the Leaning Tower of Pisa.

Now our travels take us to North Africa where we find JERRY WEYGANDT and LLOYD LUYSTER who joined the Foreign Legion. They never quite recovered from Mr. Chaffee's American Government class. You will also be pleased to know that a new sphinx has been built with the body of a lion and the head of KENNY EDWARDS. By the way, nobody knows whatever happened to Kenny but it is rumored that he was eaten by a lion. WES BROWN, the Great White Hunter and his able sidekick JOAN BRAMLEY have gone into the jungle to find out for sure. They hope to find Livingston too.

Continuing our journey around the world, we go to India. Maharajah BOB HATCH extended to us the gracious hospitality of his harem household. Included in his harem are LOIS SIMON and DORA FRIEDLINE.

In China we are provided with free transportation through the courtesy of Rickert's Rickshaw Service, owned by ELWIN RICKERT, of course. Our rickshaw was pulled by brawny MARJIE LEGAN and we went to visit GAIL RUCKEL's rice field which he and his water buffalo plow regularly. Gail grows a special kind of rice with raisins already in it for instant rice pudding.

GLORIA PRIES owns an American Restaurant in China and does very well. Head waiter is TOM GALLATIN and in the kitchen we find DONNA LAISY as chief cook and bottle washer.

We take a boat trip across the Pacific Ocean to South America on the good ship "Crackerjack". Captain of this ship was of course, BOB VANCE who always was a crackerjack.

In South America we are invited to spend a weekend at a famous Banana Plantation owned by BERNETTA REBICK and KATHY REINEL. Head overseer is JONNIE CANFIELD who makes sure the natives don't eat any bananas. As usual Bernetta had little to say.

While we were having a peaceful siesta, a masked bandit rode into the Plantation and stole huge bunches of bananas. It was later discovered by constable DERALD SHEPPARD that the mysterious masked bandit was TOM KAUFMAN. He was aided and abetted by MARGIE DUNLAP. In the nearby jungles, PAT COPPERMAN was looking for black and white stripped orchids for Long's Long Stemmed Posie Shoppe which is owned by CHARLIE LONG.

In MEXICO, we visit GERI SNYDER a renowned bull fighter. We also saw VIRGINIA JESENOVIC and ELAINE MIHALIK, Mexican hat dancers, dancing on JEANETTE TWYMAN'S hat.

There still was one Senior whom we hadn't been able to find. We return to Podunk to see our editor. He directed us to Orban's Flower Ship and there he was, still potting violets — DON SINGER. Some people get into ruts — Don just gets into flower pots.

And so as we end our journey with a sad farewell, we know that we have witnessed something great. We're not sure what's great about it, but feel sure that "you" can figure it out.

Nancy,
Well you finally had to admit that I have a good camera for a while I thought maybe you doubt it. Guess something good when you see it. I guess lots of fun and just keep that cutey personality and you will always be bright. Good luck always to a daffy girl.
